'FORGET SEX', IS WRITER'S PLEA

This, in Government, Urged by Ida M. Tarbell

WOMEN "CITIZENS" FIRST

Hopes Harding Will Not Pay "Compliment"

NEW YORK.—Women must interest themselves in public affairs as citizens, not primarily as women, says Ida M. Tarbell, noted social worker, writer and student of industrial affairs.

Miss Tarbell formerly lived in Cleveland.

"The vote and citizenship is absolutely a sexless matter," she said. "I sincerely hope President-elect Harding will not seat a woman in the cabinet simply as a compliment to womanhood upon the attainment of suffrage."

WOMEN MAY ATTAINMENT

"We have fought all these years for citizenship. It would mark its attainment if our sex is now remembered."

It is the practical side of the question of women in politics that appeals to Miss Tarbell. She does not believe that women gained the ballot because they are women, but because they are citizens and were entitled to the vote.

In like manner, she believes that women should not participate in public affairs not as women but as citizens.

She sees the possibility of greater conservatism in dealing with affairs as a result of women's advent.

WOMEN CONSERVATIVE

"The great mass of women are instinctively conservative," Miss Tarbell declared. "They fear to forsake the old, even if proven a failure, for the untried new."

"It is for this reason that the women will go hand in hand with the men on the bigger public questions. When sufficient political education makes it clear to these women that vital moral issues are at stake, she will show her influence."

"I believe that the mass of women has a stronger attitude against immorality in any form than has the great mass of men."

STUDY ALL QUESTIONS

"I believe it is the obligation of every woman to interest herself in all laws and affairs pertaining to her country's welfare, rather than limit her political activities to those phases which appeal to her instinctively," she declared.

Housing Regulations to Improve Health Recommended

DETROIT, Mich. — (By Associated Press) — Public health officials from the principal cities of the east and middle west ended their conference on the housing situation here Wednesday with the framing of resolutions embodying conclusions reached after surveys of conditions in the centers of population.

Financial aid for home builders provided by governmental agencies and stricter regulation of building were among the remedies suggested for the elimination of congestion, which was held responsible for a large proportion of disease. The task was too great for individual financing, in the opinion of speakers before the conference and should be placed in the hands of national, state or municipal governments. The recommendations of the health commissioners will be sent to the senate housing committee, which under the chairmanship of Senator Calder of New York, plans introduction of some remedial legislation.

SNUFF TAKES PLACE

OF CUP THAT CHEERS AT BANQUET IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Mass. — The cup that cheers was replaced by the snuff that exhilarates when the Scots Charitable Society revived an old custom at its annual banquet Tuesday night to take place of anti-prohibition toast. Scotch snuff from a silver mounted ram's horn was passed about the tables. First to take a cautious pinch was Governor Calvin Coolidge, vice-president-elect, who was chief guest. From him the horn went down the banquet board. Sneezes followed, and hankkerchiefs were quite generally displayed. Soon afterward Professor Charlton Black, of Boston University, related an anecdote directed to ex-ponent victims of the eighteenth amendment. It was the warning of an old Scotchman to his son against too liberal use of snuff, with the statement that "I've been drunker on snuff than I ever was on whiskey." The guests sneezed again and then the speakers had their say.

WEALTH SEEN AS GOAL IN PEACH KING'S MURDER

Plot Behind Slaying of the Georgia Millionaire, Prosecutor Says—Husband of Accused Woman Promises to Reveal Sensational Facts

MACON, Ga. — (By United Press) — Secrecy Wednesday shrouded the state's investigation of the alleged "murder cabal" which resulted in the death by poisoning June 1, of Fred B. Shepard, millionaire "peach king."

Solicitor General Charles H. Garrett expected more arrests would be made. He was working quietly so as to amass his evidence without alarming those he intended to arrest.

It was indicated the authorities believed a veritable "Borgia" plot existed to poison Shepard and seize his estate. "The poison—bichloride of mercury—is believed to have been slipped into the drinks of whiskey he was accustomed to take in the evening. Then the alleged conspirators, detectives will endeavor to prove, watched him sicken and die."

WELL ASK SPECIAL TERM

Four persons are under arrest Wednesday: Mrs. Pauline Elmer, wife of Shepard at the time of his death; her sister, Mrs. Ione Henry; her son by another marriage, Ernest Hopson, and Mrs. Annie C. Cutts. All those involved are well-to-do southern farmers with estates and handsome homes of their own.

Attorneys for the prisoners hope to get some idea of the prosecution's evidence, December 7, when arguments will be heard in court on their demand for bail. Defendants' attorneys also will ask a special term of the Houston-co court to try the four immediately.

LONDON TAKES ON WAR ASPECT

Defenses Outrival Those During the World Conflict

LONDON — (By United Press) — London figuratively walked on tip-toe Wednesday amidst rumors of disaster.

Convinced that Sinn Féin plots were about to burst about them in a series of massacres and incendiarism, officials constructed a defense of unrepented guards surround all public places. These were augmented by plain clothesmen, expert marksmen and police reserves. They were stretched about all public buildings and thrown into isolated sections of the city, where it was believed incendiarism might be expected.

OTHER CITIES ACT

Reports here indicated other cities were taking similar precautions on lesser scales. The other cities had no public buildings about which it could erect barricades and had fewer public officials to protect.

A number of suspects were taken from the liner Aquitania, when she docked at Liverpool. They were brought to London and questioned at Scotland Yard. They appeared to have satisfied police as to their intentions and were released. Some of them continued under surveillance, however.

NEW SHIPPING BOARD MEMBERS IN SESSION

WASHINGTON.—The new shipping board of seven members recently named by President Wilson, met Wednesday and the members were sworn in.

The meeting was merely formal, but several other meetings are to be held within the next few days and it is understood important action looking to the correction of conditions of waste and inefficiency brought out in the Walsh probe will be taken up.

Disposal of the great merchant fleet and the drawing of a new ship operating contract, under which private companies to which ships are allocated, work are some of the problems facing the new board.

FORMER COUNCILMAN SWALLOWS POISON AS HIS PLACE IS RAIDED

CLEVELAND — Joseph Kraus, ex-councilman, who swallowed poison Tuesday night when federal officers raided his soft drink cafe in their hunt for violators of the prohibition law, will recover, physicians said Wednesday. Kraus was surprised by the officers and he had no time to throw out a glass full of whiskey, it was charged.

"While the raiders searched the place, Kraus took poison and collapsed when he reached police headquarters. Kraus was recently convicted in the federal court for violating the dry law and was fined $500 and sentenced to four months in jail. The case is still on appeal."

"I didn't want to see the disgrace of a second arrest," Kraus told police in explanation for trying suicide.

WOMAN IS TRACED

Arrest in Hamon Death Near Prosecutor Says

ARDMORE, Okla. — (By United Press) — Arrest of Clara Smith Hamon in the nation-wide "woman hunt" is near, County Prosecutor Russell B. Brown claimed Wednesday, following his return from a "mysterious hunting trip" in connection with the death of Jake L. Hamon, millionaire oil man and Republican national committee member. Brown asserted he had positive information that Mrs. Clara Hamon was in Hamon's suite of rooms when the millionaire was shot ten days ago. Mrs. Clara Hamon is being sought on a charge of shooting with intent to kill.

It was learned here Wednesday that following the shooting Clara Hamon fled from Ardmore in an automobile accompanied by her sister, Mrs. V. B. Walling, of Wilson, Okla., and a mysterious "man with sandy hair."

The party, according to this report, left Ardmore a week ago Monday, driving to Durant, Okla. Later they returned. Tuesday morning following Clara Hamon left Durant in a service car driven by George Miller and vanished completely. Miller has not since returned to his family and his whereabouts are unknown.

Mrs. Walling and the "mysterious man" returned to Ardmore.

BRIBERY CHARGE DENIED

Witness Tells Shipping Board Probers of Commission Paid

NEW YORK — (By United Press) — A "commission" of $25,000 for Tucker K. Sands, then connected with the Commercial National Bank of Washington, D. C., to help the Downey Shipbuilding Company, with a loan of $125,000 that the company might handle more shipping board contracts was described Wednesday by J. F. Cranor of the Downey Company.

Cranor testifying before the congressional committee investigating the shipyard board denied there ever had been any bribery or any arrangement with Sands R. Wilmer Bolling or Leslie Sleser whereby the company was to have shipping board contracts thrown to it. He said he believed the charge that Bolling had received a bribe might have been connected with the commission paid Sands for the loan.

He explained his company had contracts for ship-ships and wanted more. The Downey Company at that time was not strong enough financially to warrant the shipping board in giving it more contracts. President Downey and Cranor therefore went to Sands in Washington and arranged for a $125,000 loan, agreeing on a commission of $25,000. Cranor said he thought that was not an exorbitant sum, since with the loan the company would be in position to handle contracts aggregating more than $2,500,000.

CITY OF LOUISVILLE MAY MINE OWN COAL

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Purchase and operation by the city of Louisville of a coal mine and municipal yards to distribute the coal to the city institutions is being considered by Mayor George W. Smith.

Mayor Smith announced that he had appointed a representative to investigate certain Kentucky mines with a view to buying one or more for the city. High coal prices at the local yards are said to have caused this move by the mayor.

AUTO ACCESSORY CORPORATION OPENS A SECOND STORE

The Siferd-Hossellman Company, a newly organized auto accessory corporation, has now opened its second store and service station, located at 125 W. Elm-st. The first store is at 713 S. Main-st.

This new company specializes in tires and accessories for automobiles and is equipped to render quick and satisfactory battery service. The repairing and vulcanizing department is thoroughly up-to-date and an expert is in charge.

Officers in the new corporation are: C. C. Hossellman, president; E. A. Siferd, secretary-treasurer; W. S. Siferd, vice-president; V. C. Hossellman, general manager; L. W. Hammond, manager repair department.

With the exception of Mr. Hammond, who came to this city from Akron, all the above named officers are well-known Lima citizens.

GREECE IS WARNED

Allies See Break if Constantine Returns to Throne

LONDON — (By Associated Press) — The British view with regard to the return of former King Constantine of Greece to Athens, as expressed by officials here, is that the allies cannot prohibit his return if the Greek people insist upon it. It is the Greeks, however, hung back by power the man whom the allies regard as having been hostile and treacherous to Greek and allied interests during the war, it was added, they will thereby make it extremely difficult, if not impossible, for the allies to maintain friendly or cordial relations with Greece.

Great Britain takes the view, it was stated, that the recall of Constantine would not only imperil good relations between Greece and the allies, but also would gravely endanger the treaty of Sevres.

It is believed an agreement on the policy to be adopted on this question will be reached at tomorrow's conference in London between Premier Lloyd-George, Premier Leygues of France and Court Storza, the Italian foreign minister.

HARDING HONORED AT KINGSTON

President-Elect Given Cordial Greeting by Jamaica

ABOARDERS, W. PASTORALIST (United Press) — President-elect Harding was on the last tip of his vacation journey Wednesday. The Eastern star, given him by Governor Probyn and other British officials.

After the story trip from the canal zone to Jamaica, the president-elect was glad to step into the sunshine at Kingston. Cordial greetings were given him by Governor Probyn and other British officials.

The city was decorated with intertwined American and British flags. After a luncheon with the governor, the party was taken on a 65-automobile ride.

The picturesque scenery along the banks of the Blue Mountains apparently gave the president-elect much enjoyment. Native women trucking along the perfect roads, shyly waving greetings to the tourists speeding by.

The sea had quieted Wednesday and members of the party prepared to enjoy the last few days of the voyage. The president-elect was almost the only one not to succumb when the vessel began rolling in the high seas off the canal zone.

30 HOUSES BURNED

Alabama Town Swept by Fire—Half Million Loss

JASPER, Ala. — (By Associated Press) — Fire originating early Wednesday in the building of the Crawford Mercantile Company, destroyed twenty business houses and ten residences before it was brought under control. Early estimates place the loss above $500,000. The principal business block of the town and portions of three other blocks were wiped out in the blaze which gained headway, fanned by a stiff wind included in the burned area was the property of the Southern Bell Telephone Company and the Western Union Telegraph Company, the First National Bank and the Southern Hotel.

CLASH WITH TROOPS

Since the arrival of the troops there have been two clashes between them and strike-sympathizers. In both cases, shots were exchanged between soldiers on this side of the Tug river and riflemen in Pike-co, Ky. The clashes occurred at Rose Siding, where the river is a muddy mountain stream, only 50 yards across, marking the state boundary. In neither of these trysts were there any casualties. The coal feud which now far overshadows the McCoy-Hatfield feud of Pike-co, was the outgrowth of the attempt to unionize 50 mines in the Tug river field, which embraces all Mingo and part of Pike-co. As fast as the men joined the union they were discharged.

The situation became tense and a match was touched to a powder keg last May when 11 men were killed, including Mayor Tamm.

Regular guerrilla warfare followed, bushwhacking and dynamiting of mine property being interspersed with out and out duels between the warring factions.

The ire of the miners was aroused particularly by the practice of the operators in ejecting them from company-owned houses, when they joined the union.

According to the miners, 2,700 men are still out.

BATTLE WAGED IN WEST VIRGINIA

Federal Troops and Miners Clash in Strike Zone

BULLETS FLY IN STREETS

Situation Described by Special Writer for Lima News

A state of guerrilla warfare exists in Mingo county, the hills of West Virginia, where striking miners are fighting mine guards. News from the scene of this warfare, has been fragmentary. The gravity of the situation became apparent when Governor Cornwell asked for federal troops. Harold D. Jacobs was sent into Mingo-co to tell leaders of The Lima News what was going on there. Following is his first dispatch.

(By HAROLD D. JACOBS.)

WILLIAMSON, W. Va. —

The biggest and bloodiest feud in the history of this famous feud country, is being fought out here Wednesday.

Starting last May, as a struggle between capital and labor—the coal mine operators and the miners—it gradually developed into a man-to-man contest with non-bulwark miners and mine guards fighting the battle for the operators. Twenty-three were killed and 50 wounded. Governor Cornwell characterized the situation as an "insurrection" and United States troops marched in.

Wednesday 500 men of the 19th infantry, under Colonel Hall, are bivouacked in Mingo-co, with headquarters in Williamson. The patrol the mining territory with fixed bayonets. In addition to their rifles, they have available a number of machine guns and one pound cannon. The miners and their families are living in tent colonies with winter coming on.

FEDUISTS APPEAR

Scattered, rain-slickening on their slickers, pacy up and down in the mud as I stepped from the train. It was stormy. The hills were shrouded in mist. Back some in their residences, were sharp-shooting feudists, who sometimes creep close enough to the towns to send bullets whining down the streets. The few civilians in sight, viewed me with frank suspicion. Half, young sons of the West Virginia mountains, slouched thru the mire, coat collars turned up against the rain, keeping an eye open for trouble.

"Only modified martial law has been established to date," Colonel Hall said Wednesday. "Besides maintaining order, we expect to end all possible future disturbances by arresting all members of the lawless element, in co-operation with the civil authorities. We expect to be here for some time."

Striking miners who are living in tents are each receiving $5 a week from their national organization with $2 extra for each woman and $1 for each child.

PUBLIC DIVIDED

When the tent colonies were first established, there was more inconvenience than real suffering, but now the rainy season has started and the whole countryside is drenched in a cold, clammy drizzle. None of the tents has flooring. Miners make the railroad refused to make delivery, although the lumber has been purchased. Railway officials deny this. The public appears to be about equally divided between the miners and operators—that is, that small portion of the public that is not directly interested in the feud. For coal is the only excuse for existence this out-of-the-way portion of the United States has. Except for isolated miners' shacks, the towns all are located along the Norfolk and Western Railway. Like knots in a string, drawn thru a rubbery heap.

The khaki-clad doughboys look very business-like sloshing thru the rain churned up about the mines and at the railway stations. Most of them are veterans. They stand out in contrast to the handful of boyish-looking state constabulary, whose uniform is reminiscent of the Y. M. C. A. overseas dress.

COURT ASKED TO END STRIKE BY FLOUR MILLS

TOPEKA, Kas.—Will the Kansas Industrial Court prevent strikes by employers to keep food prices up, as well as strikes by employees to keep wages up or hours down?

That, according to Topeka flour mill employees, is the question put up to the Industrial Court by the action of seven Topeka flour mills in shutting down or reducing production and laying off a large number of men at what has always been the busiest time of year in flour mills, coincident with the drop in the price of flour.

According to the millers, that is not the question at all. They phrase it thus: Can the court compel millers to grind flour which they cannot sell at present owing to conditions that are affecting every line of industry, and which cannot be stored to await future sale because of lack of storage capacity and of its perishable nature?

Kansas is the greatest flour-producing state in the Union, save one. Milling is the largest industry in the state.

Kansas flour mills have a capacity of 93,000 barrels a day and employ thousands of men.

And millers themselves estimate that the mills of the state are not operating above 50 or 60 per cent of capacity at present.

Not more than five or ten per cent of Kansas flour is consumed in the state. The rest is an important part of the food supply of the country.

QUESTION OF VITAL INTEREST TO ALL KITCHEN FLOUR BINS

The real question before Industrial Court investigators, seems to be a simple one: "Can the mills get orders for flour by accepting prices in accordance with the low price of wheat, or can't they?"

And the answer is of intimate interest to kitchen flour-bins all over the country, as well as to the hundreds of Kansas workmen facing the winter without jobs.

CHICAGO.—The battle between grain brokers in Chicago and wheat growers in the Mississippi Valley and the northwest is now at its hottest.

A committee of 17 farmers was appointed last spring by the American Farm Bureau Federation, which represents 5,000,000 farmers, to devise a co-operative selling plan, the price to be fixed by a price-fixing committee, on which consumers would be represented, based on the cost of production plus a fair profit.

The committee of 17 met in Chicago early in November at the height of the wheat slump. It is to meet here again early in January and adopt the much-talked-of plan to eliminate ex-charges, speculators and middlemen.

The final report will be submitted by national referendum to the farmers for approval.

FARMERS LOSERS IN PRICE CUT

Agricultural Industry Bears Brunt of Decline

BIGGEST LOSS IS ON CORN

Great Deflation Since Banks Tighten Up on Credits

Farmers are the biggest losers in the rapid drop in prices that has featured the business world during the past few weeks.

Falling prices have lopped off more than $20,000,000,000 value from the high prices of American farm products, according to figures compiled. While all lines of production have been hit, the greater part of the loss—at least two-thirds or more—has fallen upon the American farmer.

There has vanished into thin air twenty billions of dollars, more than six times the cost of the civil war.

DEFLATION IS HEAVY

That much deflation has been accomplished since the American bankers have tightened up on credit. And the deflation is still continuing in some commodities, as the daily market page reports testify.

The biggest loss sustained by the American farmer has been on his corn crop. The indicated corn crop amounts to 3,200,000,000 bushels and the price of corn has fallen from $2 a bushel to around 64 cents. That means a four billion dollar deflation.

LOSSES ON COTTON

The American farmers' next biggest loss on his 1920 crops has been on cotton. The indicated crop is 12,753,000 bales and cotton has now dropped in price $135 a bale, which means that the southern planter will have to stand a loss of $1,725,000,000 from the expected sale price.

The third biggest deflation in crops has been in wheat values. The indicated crop is 751,000,000 bushels. Since July 15 wheat has dropped from $2.74 a bushel to $1.62. Thus the loss has been around $863,000,000.

Falling prices in corn, wheat, cotton, sugar and oats have knocked at least $3,000,000,000 from the prices which farmers expected to obtain.

There has been a steady decline in market prices of hogs, cattle and sheep while hay, tobacco, potatoes, rice, fruits and other farm products are selling at prices far below the high levels of 1920. Hundreds of millions of dollars in value has been wiped out in the hog market alone for hog-raisers.

LIVE STOCK AT LOW LEVELS

While hogs, cattle and sheep have dropped to record low levels for 1920, the prices of these meats at the butcher shops has shown but slight decrease. The packers have not lowered their prices in ratio to the drop in the live stock markets.

In metals, copper, lead and zinc as well as tin, have dropped considerably, while silver has touched a new low record for 1920.

There is a widespread movement afoot to reduce wages in line with the drop in market values. Manufacturers declare the war-time wages cannot exist. Union leaders, under the direction of Samuel Gompers, have determined to resist wage cuts.

NEW PRESIDENT HAILED AS MEXICO'S SAVIOR

Ralph H. Turner, correspondent for The Lima News, has just emerged from Mexico, after spending a week there during which Carranza fell and the new administration came into power. He is well acquainted with Alvaro Obregon, the new president, who came into office Wednesday. Turner, in this article, tells his impression of Obregon and what his inauguration means to Mexico and the United States.

(By RALPH H. TURNER.)

NEW YORK.—Alvaro Obregon, who Wednesday becomes president of Mexico, is believed by the majority of Mexicans to be the strongest and most capable leader in the republic. He represents Mexico's greatest hope in her struggle to recover from the chaos into which she has been plunged by ten years of revolution.

"Can Obregon save Mexico?" is the question the writer has been asked repeatedly, since his departure from Mexico City, 15 days ago. That query can only be answered in this way: "If Obregon cannot save Mexico, then it is extremely doubtful whether Mexico has another man who can do even as well."

Mexico today has the best chance to "make good" that has presented itself in ten years. And according to one opinion voiced south of the Rio Grande, it also is her last chance.

Obregon is a forceful character, aggressive, a natural leader of men and is fully cognizant of his country's problems.

Moreover he has declared on repeated occasions that he will do all in his power to promote cooperation with the United States and to remove the cause of dispute which exist at present between the two republics.

But Obregon's task is a tremendous one. It is true that the chief internal problem—pacification of the country—has been virtually achieved by the six months' provisional administration of President De La Huerta. Aside from a few scattered bandit and rebel bands whose activities have slight political significance, Mexico is at peace Wednesday. It remains for Obregon, however, to consolidate the disgruntled elements, both past and present, and put them to work.

From a domestic standpoint, Mexico's rebel situation is far outshadowed today by her industrial problem. In the last few months strikes have assumed a nation-wide character and frequently have been tinged by a red complexion. Foreign agitators seeking to promote the spirit of communism, have been working actively in the leading industrial centers.

Mexico feels that full prestige cannot be obtained for her government, until that government has been recognized by the United States.

It is this recognition that Mexico desires most today. The quickest way to attain recognition—and Obregon knows it—is to begin the translation of promises into actual performances.

16 BODIES HACKED WITH HATCHET

Remains of Police In Ireland Mutilated, Report

GUERRILLA WAR CONTINUES

List of Dead Grows As the Factions Clash

DUBLIN — (By United Press) — Guerrilla warfare with the Sinn Fein continued in southern Ireland Wednesday with reports of conflicts in Cork and Ardee reaching officials here.

Black and tan police were reported to have raided several houses and to have killed two men in Ardee. The victims were said to have been dragged from their homes in the darkness and their riddled bodies left nearby.

In Cork, there was continued disturbance, with occasional fires. The fire brigade was permitted to extinguish these.

An official report Wednesday said the bodies of 16 Black and Tan police killed near Kilmichael, had been hacked with hatchets after death.

400 HUNDRED ARE JAILED
Ten days of searching for leaders of the Sinn Fein movement have netted 400 prisoners. Varying from distinguished, well-dressed men to uncouth peasants, the prisoners were herded in temporary quarters until the newly planned prison camps are completed. Strict watch is kept.

Much literature seized on the march in their homes, has been taken to the Irish office where it is being examined for further information on the Irish volunteer army and its plans.

The Labor Party commission headed by Arthur Henderson, member of parliament, arrived here late Tuesday. It accented at once an invitation to a joint conference with officials of the Irish Labor Party, the Catholic hierarchy and the Irish peace commission.

The Laborites were given permission to visit any part of Ireland. Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, was reported to have withheld any further aid other than that.

EDITOR ARRESTED
Dublin was quiet Tuesday, except for one minor raid, which resulted in the arrest of the editor of "Young Ireland."

The situation at Macroom, near which place 16 Black and Tans were murdered Sunday, was vague Wednesday. Reports reached here that reprisals continued and that the countryside was terrorized. Among the police there was much indignation over reports that the dead bodies had been desecrated.

There were conflicting reports as to how the slaughter occurred. One report was that the first of two bodies struck a mine and that all the men in it were instantly killed. Another said that the body ran in to a concealed trench cut across the road like a bear trap.

Y. W. C. PLANS FOR XMAS

The Entre-Nous club will hold a meeting Friday evening at the Y. W. C. A. Plans will be discussed for the Christmas work which will probably consist in making baby outfits for the Red Cross.

The Trotty-veck club girls will hold a bazaar Saturday at Harman's store.

Tuesday evening the Y. W. C. A. board held a meeting at the "Y." Two splendid talks were given by Miss Alice Collier, who spoke on finance, and Miss Mary Alice Phibney, whose subject was "Girls' Work."

The possibility of organizing the High school girls within the next two months was discussed. Plans for improving the Smith-Tower maternity bill, which is to be presented before the next Congress, were also discussed.

Plans for Christmas parties for the Y. W. C. A. are being completed.

FARM CHIEFS WILL HOLD MEETING

Bureau Leaders Gather in Indianapolis Dec. 6

PROBLEMS TO BE DISCUSSED

Convention Will Be in Session For Three Days

INDIANAPOLIS — Agricultural leaders from every part of the country will assemble here Monday, December 6, in the second annual convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation to take up the problems confronting the farmer and to discuss measures for their solution and relief in conjunction with the formulation of a national agricultural policy.

The convention which will continue for three days, is expected to attract one of the largest representative gatherings of agriculturists in the history of the country. Delegates of the million and more members of the American Farm Bureau Federation in the thirty-three States through which its organization extends will attend. In addition, representatives of other industries and business organizations with which agriculture is closely allied will be present.

Among the speakers who will address the convention are some of the foremost agriculturists in the country, authorities on banking and finance, taxation, transportation and marketing—subjects to which the convention will accord a good share of its attention because of their kindred connection with farm problems and other of natural prominence.

NOTED MEN ON PROGRAMME

On the programme are: W. P. G. Harding, governor of the Federal Reserve Board; Governor W. I. Harding, of Iowa; Governor Goodrich, of Indiana; Henry Wallace, editor of a national farm magazine; T. H. McDonald, chief of the U. S. Bureau of Good Roads; H. G. Shirley, secretary-treasurer of the Federal Highway Council; Clifford Thorpe, of Chicago, transportation expert; J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation; Gray Silver, legislative representative of the Federation, and Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador to the United States. Ambassador Geddes' topic will be agriculture with reference to its international relationships. As it will be his first address on this subject since coming to America, considerable importance is being attached to it.

Others on the list of speakers are E. T. Meredith, Secretary of Agriculture; Herbert Hoover, A. L. Lever, of the Federal Farm Loan Board, and William Redfield, former Secretary of Commerce.

DISCUSS NEW POLICY

The proposed national agricultural policy to which the convention will devote the greater part of its time is the outgrowth of a plan which had been in inception before the war, but whose development was interrupted with the advent of hostilities. However, with readjustment and the new problems the war brought to the door of the farmer the need of a definite agricultural policy has been felt more than ever, and for some time a group of prominent agricultural leaders and experts on financial transportation and marketing problems have been cooperating with President Howard of the Federation in working out the essential features of a complete policy.

The result of their deliberations, will be presented at the convention, and the decisions reached in regard to them will be made the basis of the future educational, legislative and economic activities of organized agriculture.

FRAUD IS CHARGED

Former Chiefs of Steel Company Are Indicted

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — (By Associated Press) A federal grand jury here Wednesday returned indictments against Herbert DuPuy, former president and chairman of the board of directors of the Crucible Steel Company of America, and George A. Turville, former vice president and secretary-treasurer, charging them with conspiring to defraud the United States Government out of income and excess profits taxes, said to amount to several million dollars.

Underlying companies of the Crucible Steel Company of America mentioned in the indictment are the Halcumb Steel Company, Crucible Steel Mining and Milling Company, Penn. Connecting Railroad Company, Crucible Steel Company, Crucible Coal Company, Crucible Fuel Company and the Midland Improvement Company.

LABOR SECRETARY TO CONFER ON MINE SCALE

WASHINGTON — Secretary Wilson was to confer Wednesday with the joint scale committee of the anthracite operators and miners in an effort to break the deadlock in pending wage negotiations. The miners are asking for a general wage increase approximating that in the bituminous field and also for an eight hour day and a minimum wage of $6 a day.

The labor secretary is expected to officially communicate to the scale committee an interpretation of President Wilson's telegram requesting the re-opening of the award of the anthracite coal commission, which the president made last summer.

BANK IS CLOSED

FARGO, N. D. — The Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Crowswell, N. D., closed Wednesday because of depleted reserves, according to messages received by Fargo banks. This is the seventeenth North Dakota bank that has closed recently for that reason. It was said the closing of the Crowswell bank would be only temporary.

MISS PARKER APPOINTED

COLUMBUS — The state industrial commission Tuesday appointed Miss Elmer R. Parker, member of the Ohio Board of Motion Picture Censors to succeed Maurice Hague. The term is for three years at a salary of $2,000 a year. Miss Parker has been stenographer to Governor Cox for the past four years.

REED LAUDS LIMA PROGRESSIVISM

Commerce Chamber Booster Visits Lima Men At Dinner

Members of Lima's chamber of commerce heard Congressman Dan Reed, New York, praise their body and laud the city's civic pride at a get-together dinner in the Elks' club Tuesday evening.

New directors for this commerce body will be selected thru the medium of a mail vote. The result will be made known before January 1, 1921.

Old directors of the board resigned Tuesday night, to make room for the new incumbents.

George Bayly, president of the chamber, told of plans to broaden Lima's interests and rank it high with other communities in the state.

Others who spoke to the assembly were R. B. Dunn and Austin Potter.

New directors of the commerce body will be installed on January 11, it was announced.

AGED PRISONER FEARED HANGING OR ELECTRIC CHAIR AS HIS PORTION

"Who are you, the Mayor?" William Kerr, 60, of 624 Madison-st., asked Judge Jackson when arraigned in criminal court charged with stealing a push cart and a peach tree.

"No," the Judge replied. "Well then you must be the ex-mayor and a relative of mine."

The Judge laughed and Kerr said: "Bless your soul didn't you ever buy anything on credit?"

But it was all the same with Judge Jackson and he fined the alleged thief $10 and sentenced him to 30 days in jail if the stolen goods were not returned by night.

Kerr asked the Judge if they were going to hang him.

When told nothing of the sort was contemplated, he wanted to know if they were going to put him in the electric chair.

Directors of Banks Consider Making Reductions

MIXED RATES WERE CHARGED

However, One Institution Did Not Increase Interest

Other Lima banks, following the announcement made Tuesday that the Lima Trust Co. would return to its old basis of charging six per cent interest on commercial loans, discussed the advisability of similar action, Wednesday.

Several of the banks are planning directors' meetings to take up the question.

Practically all banks in the city, it was stated Wednesday, have been charging a mixed rate, varying from six, seven and as high as eight per cent on commercial loans.

There is one exception.

DON'T RAISE RATE

E. T. Mitchell, cashier of the City Bank, told a Lima News reporter Wednesday, his bank had never charged more than six per cent.

"We never raised our interest rate on commercial loans," Mitchell said. "We conduct a strictly commercial business and we never believed it was fair to charge our customers more than that."

At the American Bank, officials said they had been charging a mixed rate of six and seven per cent.

The bank has called a directors' meeting for Friday, when the proposal of returning to the six per cent fixed basis for all commercial loans will be discussed.

Cashier Jones said the Old National bank was considering the changes.

"However," he added, "we are not quite decided on what course we will take and I have nothing to say at the present in regard to the matter. There may be some developments along that line a little later."

NOT CONSIDERING CHANGE

"We are not considering a return to the six per cent basis, at this time," said George McHaffey of the Metropolitan Bank. "With the money market at its present status, we can't."

The Metropolitan is charging a mixed rate of six, seven and eight per cent on commercial loans. McHaffey stated. The rate of interest, he explained, depends entirely upon the amount of the loan.

NEW YORK COMPANY TO PREPARE PLANS FOR LIMA SEWER SYSTEM

Designing engineers to take charge of the plans and estimates on Lima's new proposed intercepting sewage system have been employed by the city, Service Director Elmer McClain announced Tuesday.

The contract for the work, McClain said, will be handled by Fuller & McClintock of New York.

The new system, it is estimated, will cost in the neighborhood of $1,250,000, the service director said.

BANKER TO TESTIFY IN ARNSTEIN TRIAL

WASHINGTON — Another Washington bank official—William Flather, cashier of the Riggs National Bank—was expected to appear as a witness Wednesday when the trial of Julius W. (Nicky) Arnstein and three members of the Washington brokerage firm of Sullivan and Company, accused of bringing stolen securities into the District of Columbia, was resumed in the district supreme court.

Testimony that shares of stock taken by their banks as collateral for loans to Sullivan and Company were found to have been "posted" as "stolen or lost" when sent to transfer agents preliminary to being sold, was given Tuesday by James A. Cahill, vice president of the Commercial National Bank, and Charles W. Worden, vice president of the Continental Trust Company.

LIMA PRODUCE PRICES DECLINE RAPIDLY, SURVEY OF MARKETS INDICATE

The price of practically all kinds of meat sold wholesale in Lima has decreased two to eight cents in the last two weeks.

Fresh country butter dropped from 6 to 10 cents on local markets and creamery butter has dropped 12 cents in the last two weeks, according to a statement Wednesday by P. F. Brady, manager of the produce department of Swift & Co.

Creamery butter is now selling at 54 cents per pound wholesale. It was selling for 62 cents per pound last week.

All pork meat has dropped in price from 6 to 8 cents, while beef remains steady. The hog market is lower from 3 to 4 cents per pound than it was two weeks ago.

Smoked meats are from 2 to 4 cents cheaper; bacon is 2 cents cheaper and ham dropped off 4 cents, according to Ed Gordon, manager of the Swift and Co. branch here.

All poultry has dropped from 4 to 5 cents per pound since Thanksgiving and a further reduction is anticipated.

HELD ON CHARGE OF THEFT AND CONSPIRACY

TORONTO — John Doughty, arrested in Oregon and returned here to face charges of theft and conspiracy in the kidnapping of Ambrose J. Small, theatre owner, who has been held without bail for hearing next Monday, the police announced Wednesday. Doughty was a former employee of the missing man. Detectives attempting to solve the mystery surrounding Small's disappearance said they placed little credence in the theory that he was murdered and the body shipped away in a trunk.

DISTRIBUTION OF XMAS. SAVINGS

Quarter Million Dollars Goes to Lima People Next Week

BANKS PREPARE CHECKS

Big Sum Will Find Its Way Into Channels of Trade.

More than a quarter million dollars in the possession of 10,000 people will be thrown into circulation in Lima next Tuesday.

On that date four Lima banks will mail out $250,000 in checks to members of the Christmas Savings Club. Five thousand dollars at the Lima Trust Co. will receive $125,000 total reached the pre-war record established at the bank several years ago.

Three thousand members of the club at the Old National Bank will receive $75,000. Members of the bank staff were busy Tuesday morning preparing the Christmas accounts and preparing for the mails. Each year sees a large increase in the number of Christmas club members, bank officials said Tuesday, and the closing year is no exception.

At the first National bank $30,000 will be sent out to 1,000 depositors. The same amount will go out from the American Bank, Cashier Harris said.

DEPOSITORS INCREASE

The Christmas club savings plan bank heads agree, has received a big impetus during 1920. Many more depositors were listed this year than in 1919.

The plan, which starts with a deposit of a few cents the first week and increases weekly as the year grows, has been declared the best method to furnish Christmas money. Checks from all banks, it was stated Wednesday, will be mailed out Tuesday, December 7.

WATERWORKS RECEIPTS FOR NOVEMBER SHOW A NICE INCREASE

Receipts in the waterworks office for November 1920 show an increase over the same month last year. City Auditor Rupert announced Wednesday.

In the month just closed the figures totaled $7,384.70. A year ago the sum amounted to $5,566.80, an increase of $1,717.90 for 1920.

Costs of operation of the waterworks have been on the increase, Rupert stated. With an increase in water rates and increases in salary, coal, alum and other necessities, the department has made a good showing, the auditor said.

The price of alum, Rupert said, was formerly $28 a ton. To show the increase, he produced a bill for the following month's supply which quoted the sulphate of alumina at $40 a ton.

LIMA PEOPLE ATTEND J. S. SMITH FUNERAL AT COLUMBUS GROVE

Funeral services for J. F. Smith, Civil war veteran, Columbus Grove, but who had a wide acquaintance in Lima, were held Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Columbus Grove church, Columbus Grove. Interment was made beside the grave of his wife at Truro cemetery, near Columbus Grove.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Morris, 809 Rice-ave, and Mrs. A. G. Collins, 207 W. Spring-st, the latter a niece of Mr. Smith, went to Columbus Grove to attend the funeral.

CITY BUDGET FOR 1921 $325,000

Receipts Will be $200,000, $125,000 Short, Auditor Says

Lima's going to be up against it financially, during the first six months of 1921, unless a council committee, named a short time ago, is successful in its appeal for aid from the state legislature.

This was the statement of City Auditor Rupert Tuesday as he mailed out budget forms to the heads of the various city departments.

The forms, Rupert explained, were to be filled out with estimates of each department's needs during the first half of the approaching year.

Roughly estimating the figure, the auditor said he believed the city would need $325,000 for operating expenses from January to June.

Approximate receipts for the same period, Rupert said, were placed at $200,000. Of this sum, $80,000 will come from taxation alone.

"Unless aid comes from some source," the auditor declared, "it will be necessary to slash the budgets and the city will be forced to skimp along the best way possible."

However, he said, hopes have been pinned to the council committee which is expected to call on the state legislature and ask permission to create a deficiency bond issue without carrying the matter to the polls.

'OTHERS' CASH' IS RYAN'S SECRET

How Borrowed Money Brought Financier a Fortune

BUY "PRODUCTION" PLAN

Bankers Give Him Backing in Stock Slump

NEW YORK — When Allan A. Ryan went into Wall Street many years ago he went in "only because he had to have money for the things he wanted to do."

Thus he got his start in the financial world by dealing in the capital of others.

Today he stands as perhaps the most striking example of the financiers' old saw: "Money is made on money borrowed."

In Wall Street there are two classes of operators, the "bears" and the "bulls."

The bears play for, or attempt to effect a falling market, the bulls believe in and play for a rising market.

In all his financial career and in his physical and mental makeup, Ryan has been of the latter class.

PRODUCTION BUYING
"Buying production, organizing it, developing it and putting it on a foolproof financial foundation is my business," he has said.

Hence it is a striking thing that two Ryan has developed into a Wall Street sensation it has been the result of "bear" activity—the first time last April when he fought a bear raid on his Stutz Motor holdings and licked his opponents, and the second time recently when the stock market persistently yielded to "bear" pressure and securities in which he had borrowed money dropped with the rest.

Ryan borrowed the money to buy his seat on the Stock Exchange when he first entered Wall Street.

With what he made as a broker he bought and developed his first production and at the age of 25 had made his first million.

Then he lost much of it, as he says, "by being a fool." After three years of ill health, during which he went west to recover, he returned to Wall Street with nothing except his seat on the Stock Exchange and a family.

AGAIN HE BORROWED
To get started again he borrowed money at a local bank, his notes being indorsed by his mother. That was in 1914 and the war came on just as he was beginning to regain his feet.

"I remember," he says, "exactly how I scurried out for my hat when the news of the war came."

My partner asked me where I was going and I told him up to the bank to explain that I couldn't continue my monthly payment on those notes till business cleared again.

"On the way up to the bank an idea darted into my head—munitions, food, and then another—food, and another transportation."

"I went into the bank repeating those three words like a refrain—and after I had arranged about my notes I told them they'd have to get busy furnishing Europe with those three necessities and would have to lend me more money so I could get busy, too."

ON FEET AGAIN
And thus it was that Ryan got on his feet again. As fast as he could get capital he invested it in production. His course netted him tremendous success in the industrial world.

There is vast secrecy about his exact financial status today. He has employed counsel to take care of his interests.

The big banks holding his securities apparently have decided to safeguard them. The projects he has built up stand behind him.

But he continues a strong "bull," six feet two inches of it, with a rangy build, friendly, brown eyes, a friendly smile and tremendously in earnest about the works he has constructed.

His philosophy stands: "Buy production," build it up. Remember that you're living in America and go ahead regardless of all fools who sell real values short on passing flurries."

DAVIS NOT DECIDED AS TO HIS SECRETARY

COLUMBUS, — Governor-elect Harry L. Davis is "up in the air" over the choice of a secretary, he declared Wednesday, while in Columbus, conferring with Republican state leaders.

"Honestly, I don't know who my secretary will be. You know as much about it as I do," he said.

Dave Jones, Cleveland, and Nathan E. Cook, Cleveland, are considered as having the inside track for the job. Cook was with Davis in Columbus Wednesday.

Davis will announce only the appointments of his secretary and adjutant general before he assumes office, January 10, he said. Other places won't be filled and some may not even be seriously considered, until he gets squared away in the governor's chair, he indicated.

INDICTED MEN TAKEN ON NON SUPPORT CHARGES

Two more men, secretly indicted by the Allen-co grand jury for non-support, were placed under arrest Wednesday.

William Zeigler was located in Akron by Sheriff Charles W. and brought back to Lima. Zeigler will be arraigned later. He is confined in the Allen-co jail.

Deputy Sheriff Fraunfelter arrested J. W. Cramer, 36, at his plumbing work on W. High-st. Wednesday morning. He is held to answer to the charge of non-support. Cramer's children reside in Lima.

WOULD STOP IMMIGRATION.
WASHINGTON. — Complete stoppage of immigration for a period of six months, while Congress is drafting a general law to cover the whole immigration question, is proposed in a bill which Senator King of Utah, a Democratic member of the senate immigration committee, is preparing for introduction soon after Congress meets next Monday.

MEN AND MATTERS
Guy Custer, county recorder, is in his desk in the recorder's office at the court house, after having been off-duty since early in November, returning from a trip to Illinois.

PROMISED TO WED IF ELECTED, SWAMPED WITH OFFERS

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo. — Because he had in his platform a plank promising to marry some fair voter if the newly franchised women would cast their first ballots for him, State Senator-elect E. E. Penzel is probably the busiest dodger today of all the newly-elected office holders beset by patronage seekers.

Found literally swamped and a small deluge of delicately perfumed billets de aux, of all shapes, sizes and colors, Senator-elect Penzel was asked just what he was going to do about keeping that campaign promise.

"I can't say anything just now; I am bewildered by the large number of applicants, and it will take time for me to decide," he answered. "It isn't a question now of finding who I can get for a wife, as I figured during the campaign, but a matter of whom I must choose. 'Overwhelmed' is not a word sufficient to explain my position now."

MANY SCIENTIST VOTES
And the Senator-elect systematically slit open pink and blue and lavender tinted envelopes, carefully read them, indexed them and neatly arranged them for future attention.

"What kind of a girl will you pick?" the correspondent queried.

"I will never know," he answered, "until I see the one for me. I had no idea I would have such a chance to pick one. I thought it would be a question of who I could find. Now it seems to be a matter of who will pick me."

Some of the letters were written in a joking manner, some appeared to be half serious, some were frank proposals of marriage, even going so far as to outline the financial advantages enjoyed by the writers, some offered only love, others offered property and wealth. Some were from girls apparently in their teens and others appeared to have been written by fair voters of more mature age. All frankly avowed they had voted for Penzel.

A great many of the letters also were applications for jobs at the State capital. "It is rather strange, isn't it?" Penzel queried, "that women on outnumbers the male applicants for State positions by two to one?"

"PINK TEA" CAMPAIGN
Penzel made it a point to attend every gathering of women where a man was permitted during the pre-election fight, and he openly promised to marry if the returns showed him the winner. He attended every affair from a dance to a church social, it is said.

"I have just two aspirations in life," he declared in his speeches. "One is to be elected to the office of State Senator and the other is to get married. I feel eligible for both positions."

He added that if elected he would take a wife with him to Jefferson City for the first session of the Legislature.

Penzel, altho a Republican, won by a 6,400 plurality in the Twenty-first District, normally Democratic by 800. Seventy-five per cent of the women in his district voted, he avowed, and he modestly added that he believed 65 per cent of them cast their ballots for him. Anyhow, politicians attribute his great plurality to something more than the nationwide Republican landslide.

BACHELOR OF THIRTY-FIVE
Penzel is thirty-five years old and a bachelor of the type that the feminine sex would probably consider good to look upon. He appeared careful in his dress and jolly in nature.

Many of the politicians of the Twenty-first Senatorial District were inclined to regard Penzel's marriage plank as a joke. But it has ceased to be a joke—it is rumored that numerous of the fair voters are awaiting with some expectancy and perhaps a little anxiety the fulfillment of his campaign pledge.

LION CLUB TO HAVE GLEE CLUB; COLONEL E. B. LEWIS LUNCHEON SPEAKER

A glee club composed of members will be a feature of future meetings of the Lion club. The singers of the organization will meet Friday evening to tune their voices in harmony. The bowlers of the club will also meet Friday night to prepare for a series of games.

The speaker at the Wednesday luncheon was E. B. Lewis, who gave a very interesting talk on Lionism, patriotism, optimism and service. His interspersed his remarks with humorous anecdotes, much to the enjoyment of the members.

Other speakers were Walter Grubb and F. H. Hutchinson who had supervision of this medical and surgical work of the B. & O. R. R.

BELT CONTAINING 970 FOUND IN OLD BOOT

GARDNER, Mass. — While examining a pair of leather boots at a sale of the personal effects of Jacob Haggstrand of Finland, who died here in 1918, a prospective purchaser stuck his hand into one of them and found a money belt containing $970. The boots had been in the possession of the overseer of the poor since Haggstrand's death. Haggstrand came here from Crystal Falls, Mich. His wife in Finland will be notified of the find.

Mrs. Mabel Ogden, 33, wife of L. C. Ogden, Cincinnati, died there Tuesday. She was Mabel Arnold, daughter of Mrs. Alma Arnold, 118 S. Shawnee-st., before her marriage seven years ago and was a teacher in the Lima public schools.

The body will be brought to Lima Thursday night and taken to the home of her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cramer, 831 Erie-ave. Funeral services at the Cramer home Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Interment at Woodlawn.

YOUNG WOMAN ADMITS ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

TOLEDO — Miss Ida White, 18, Bay City, Mich., staggered into the home of her half sister, Mrs. Clara Canani here at 3 a. m. Wednesday, blood flowing from a revolver wound in her left breast. She said that she had shot herself.

Miss White and a chum, Minnie Arndt, 19, Saginaw, Mich., accepted an invitation to an automobile ride, extended by two men. Both girls returned home at 1 a. m. Minnie going to bed. At 3 a. m. Mrs. Canani answered a summons to her door and Ida collapsed in her arms. Canani's revolver was found on a sidewalk a few blocks away.

$38,653 BALANCE IN G. O. P. CAMPAIGN CHEST

WASHINGTON — The National Republican Congressional committee came thru the campaign with a balance of $38,653, it was reported Wednesday to the clerk of the house of representatives. The total fund was $758,544.

Contributors included William H. Foltwell, Philadelphia $25,000; John D. Rockefeller Jr. $5,000; Cornelius Vanderhoff $10,000 and Joseph E. Widener of Philadelphia $10,750.

NORTH DAKOTA PLANS TO AID STATE BANKS

FARGO, N. D. — Custodians of public funds in North Dakota Wednesday planned to go to the aid of banks in the state, facing a critical situation, because of lack of money and heavy withdrawals. Sixteen smaller banks have already closed their doors.

The executive council of the North Dakota Bankers' Association voted to leave sinking funds in the state bank for at least six months, and only withdrawal of such funds as are absolutely necessary.

Despite the bankers' agreement, financial interests awaited with considerable anxiety the outcome of the situation, when public funds may be withdrawn from the Bank of North Dakota. Under the amendment passed at the last election, these funds may be withdrawn from the state bank starting Thursday. Director Cathro of the bank said he believed $1,500,000 would be withdrawn in a short time.

ESCAPED PRISONER IS SHOT TO DEATH

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Clyde A. Hamilton, who Tuesday shot and killed Jailer George Reeves, of Memphis, and escaped with two fellow prisoners, was shot to death Wednesday at Winona, Miss. His companions, E. R. Kelly and A. F. Shaw, were captured and have admitted their identity.

The sheriff of Winona shot Hamilton to death when the three bandits were cornered in a freight car at Winona, according to telephone messages received here. The other two then surrendered without resistance.

PICK WINNERS AT BUNNY SHOW

Judge Hookway Has Big Job at Memorial Hall Exhibit

Never see red, white and blue rabbits? They're on display at Memorial hall where the first annual show of the Lima Rabbit and Cavy Breeders' association was on its second day Wednesday.

Prize winners in the show it was stated, would not be announced until Thursday. George Hookway of the Osaage Rabbitry, Cleveland, is judging the prize bunnies.

One of the features at the show which holds particular attraction for the women and children are the Himalayans, with black ears, smut nose, black tail, black feet, pink eyes and white bodies.

They are among the most beautiful rabbits on display, officials of the show stated.

Another interesting feature which appeals to the women is the display of rabbit furs, brought to the show by A. R. Renner, Hamilton, Ind.

Rabbit sandwiches were being distributed from Wednesday. The show will close Thursday.

GIRL SWIMS RIVER WHEN RELEASED BY HER CAPTORS

NEW PHILADELPHIA — Clara Thiebaud, 16, Gnadenhuetten, farmer's daughter, to make certain that her captors would not change their mind, swam across the Tuscarawas river, below Gnadenhuetten, Tuesday, after she had been freed by kidnappers in an automobile. She was released by a woman and a boy aged 18, passengers in the automobile. Two men in the car, aged 30 and 40, had seized the girl, bound and blindfolded her, were dropped by the woman and boy after the car had been driven many miles.

The men had gotten out of the car for a minute. When they attempted to re-enter they faced a revolver drawn by the boy. Then the car was turned around and driven back to where the girl was seized.

GOVERNORS MEET AT HARRISBURG

Weighty Questions Faced by State Executives

HARRISBURG, Pa. — (By Associated Press) — New England clapped hands with the Pacific slope here Wednesday and the denizens of the frozen Great Lakes shore met and fraternized with the dweller of the land among the Rio Grande when two score governors and governors-elect assembled in the Pennsylvania senate chamber for the opening session of their twelfth annual conference.

Discussion of weighty questions of government, administration and the threatening out of problems of state craft and economics which await post war readjustment in every state of the Union, faced the executives when they convened under the gavel of Governor William C. Sprout of Pennsylvania. In his capacity of host and temporary chairman.

Wednesday's schedule called for a rigorous program of official discussion punctuated by entertainment at a hotel for luncheon and at the governor's home for a formal dinner in the evening.

At half past ten the session was scheduled to begin with the address of welcome by Governor Sprout on behalf of Pennsylvania and Lieutenant Governor Edward E. Beidemann, speaking in the name of Harrisburg.

HUNTING LICENSES RECEIVED WEDNESDAY

Hunters who were disappointed in securing licenses within the last week may now be accommodated at the office of the county clerk of clerks.

Clerk Ira F. Clem received 100 licenses Wednesday morning, after he had communicated by telephone with the state department at Columbus and told them circumstances in Allen-co. He had not had a license blank on hand since the day before. Thanksgiving and hunters were turned away, empty-handed, when they applied.

Mr. Clem anticipates the present supply will last him until the new year.

FIGHT CASE FOR HOLLENBACHER

Supreme Court Hears Argument for Removal to State Hospital

Arguments to retain Carl Hollenbacher, alleged wife murderer, in the Ohio penitentiary, were made in the supreme court at Columbus Wednesday by Prosecuting Attorney John L. Cable.

Judge S. A. Armstrong, Hollenbacher's counsel, is seeking to have him returned to the Lima state hospital for treatment for insanity. Hollenbacher was sentenced to the penitentiary by Judge Klenger last November, after he was found guilty by a jury of shooting his divorced wife, Mrs. Pearl Burgess, thru the heart, on June 19, 1919.

His legal counsel has sought from the first to have him removed to the state hospital for the criminal insane, for treatment. Decision by the supreme court will settle the matter. Announcement of the decision may be expected before Christmas, Cable says.

ROUGH TAKES "EGOTISM" OUT OF SERGT. EBERLE

Sergt. Frank Eberle had his picture taken the other day and the finished product was delivered to him in elaborate folders Wednesday. "Gee," he said, "Ain't I a good looking?"

"I'm a handsome bird, anyhow."

Then Chief Roush spoiled it all.

He entered Eberle's office and taking one of the pictures in his hand said: "Say, Frank, can I have just one of these to chase some rats from my barn?"

Eberle consented.

SALE OF HEALTH SEALS BEGINS WEDNESDAY

War on Tuberculosis Launched in Lima and Allen-co

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN PLANNED

In Charge of Miss Catherine Riley and Dr. Pierce

Lima and Allen-co's war on tuberculosis was launched Wednesday with the annual sale of Christmas health seals.

Miss Catherine Riley has taken charge of the city campaign, it was announced by George Haviy, chamber of commerce president.

Dr. Josephine Pierce, of the Allen-co Child Welfare association, will handle the seal sale in the county, exclusive of Lima and Delphos.

CONTINUE UNTIL CHRISTMAS

The city campaign as well as in the county, will run from now until Christmas day, Dr. Pierce said. No set quota has been fixed for the city. More than 125,000 seals are on sale in the rural districts, towns and villages in the county.

In Lima the seals are being distributed for sale in various places.

The active campaign will not open until the week before Christmas.

When the seal sale will be turned over to girls who will work among shoppers in the downtown districts.

Of the money derived from the county sale, 80 per cent will go to aid the Allen-co Welfare association.

Twenty per cent will be used in the national tuberculosis fight.

The sale in the rural districts has received the endorsement of county school superintendent C. A. Arganbright.

Teachers in the district schools have been urged by the county superintendent to request their pupils to support the move.

AID RURAL SCHOOL NURSE

Funds collected after being turned into the child welfare association will in turn go to aid the work of Miss Ida Nikel, rural school nurse, who during the past term has visited practically all of the township schools and examined 1600 pupils, in addition to giving health talks to the children.

Thirty millions of the seals, for use during the Christmas season on letters and Xmas parcels, are on sale in Ohio.

Funds derived from the sale finance the organized movement in the state and national against tuberculosis, the great white plague, which is more destructive than war.

Sixty-five hundred persons died from the disease in Ohio last year.

JOHN H. BERN, of Cincinnati, Ohio, says his wonderful restoration to health since taking Tanlac has astonished all his friends, has gained twenty pounds.

"My friends are all astonished over my wonderful restoration to health since taking Tanlac," said John H. Bern, of 308 East Front St., Cincinnati, Ohio, recently.

"I don't know what it is, but there is something about Tanlac that certainly does the work," he said, "and I firmly believe if it hadn't been for this medicine I wouldn't be here now. It completely restored my health and I have gained twenty pounds besides. I have a splendid appetite now, and can eat anything I want without being troubled in the least afterwards."

"Before taking Tanlac my health was dreadfully run down. My main trouble was indigestion, and I suffered misery night and day. I never seemed hungry, and the little I ate upset my stomach. I was nervous and couldn't get a good night's sleep. I lost thirty-four pounds and was going down hill rapidly. It seemed like the more medicine I took the worse I got."

"But since taking Tanlac I am like a brand-new man. I sleep like a farm hand all night and feel just fine all day. In fact, I'm a perfectly well man once more. Tanlac certainly beats anything I ever saw in my life."

Tanlac is sold in Lima at Hunter's Drug Stores and the leading druggists in every town. —Adv.

Carpet-cleaning bills, the wages of the cleaning woman, laundry bills for draperies soiled by dust swished about by brooms, re-decorating bills due to the same cause, money paid for rugs to replace those worn out by embedded grit or ruined by moths, bills for tonics, medicines, etc., due to overwork—all these represent expenses that are largely ended by The Hoover.

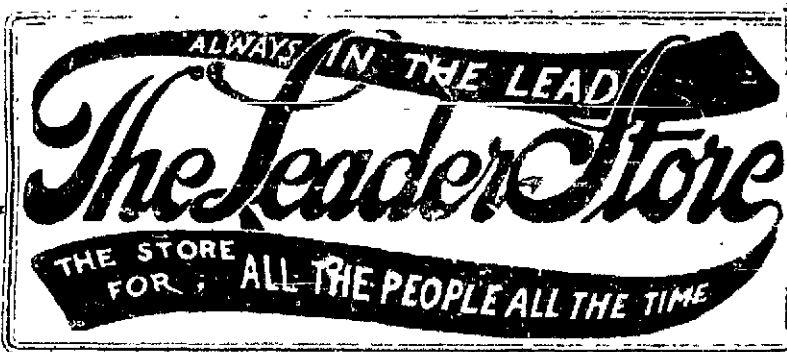

Could you value your time, strength and health at nothing—could you class a clean, sanitary home the year 'round as valueless—even then The Hoover would repay its cost, many times over, by the longer life it gives to your rugs.

IMPORTANCE OF THE RABBIT

LIMA is being afforded a demonstration, this week, of the possibilities of the development of the rabbit or hare family, as a means of providing pleasure and profit in the breeding of the graceful and timid animals for show purposes, adding to the meat supply of the country and lending importance to the fur industry.

Memorial Hall is the "storm center" of the "rabbit people" this week. For the most part the specimens are "blue ribbon boys." They represent the very best kinds and types of that particular branch of the domestic livestock industry. Three hundred rabbits, in the pink of condition, all competing for honors in their class, afford the judge, who scores them by points, a difficult task to determine "who is who" in the rabbit assembly.

Rabbit breeding isn't a craze. It is thus looked upon by many persons who have no inclination for the "game." Talk to a "rabbit man" for a few minutes and he will make you believe "there's millions in it." But there isn't. It is a steadily growing line of endeavor, developing in importance slowly but surely. Rabbit breeding has its devotees the same as the producers of pure bred poultry for prize competition. Out of it grows the utility side of the proposition.

Lima people who know little or nothing about the "rabbit game" will probably be amazed to learn that the largest type of rabbits have been developed to the astounding weight of 24 pounds. However, the average is much less than that. In the Lima show this week the heaviest rabbit is a 17-pounder. And it's some rabbit!

Hundreds are visiting Memorial Hall to "look 'em over," and a lot of folks will get the "fever" for going into the rabbit raising business. Many start and many fail, due to carelessness and lack of knowledge of the care of the animals. While many fail, many also succeed. New recruits are added constantly. Thus the industry grows. It's going to require time for the domesticated rabbit to come into its own as a medium of adding to the meat supply and fur trade, but it will come, eventually, as people learn more about the desirable animal.

More than $3,000 worth of Flemish Giants, Himalayans, Dutch, Checkered Giants, White Giants, Rufus Reds and Belgians are on display at Memorial Hall. They are worth seeing and it costs nothing to see them. They'll be there until Thursday.

PREPARING FOR WAR

MUCH as we dread the thoughts of war, nations now are preparing for struggles of the future. Implements are being made which will mow down humanity by the thousands and will make the recent great world conflict appear a tame affair.

Announcement has just been made that Japan has perfected a new gas shell which will have deadly effects if ever used in war. Our own government has perfected gas bombs to be carried in soldiers' pockets to be used in hand-to-hand conflict. Other nations are working on deadly contrivances.

Great inventors have predicted that the next war, if there is another, will be more disastrous than the mind of man now can conceive. It is to be hoped that nations will never again be arrayed against each other; that a brotherhood embracing the entire world may be effected soon which will make the wanton waste of preparing for war impossible and forever insure peace and good will among men.

The rise of a statesman's popularity is during that period when he is able to promise every fellow exactly what he wants. The debate happens when the votes come due and go to protest.

"A fat and luscious rabbit," I said, "would be the stunt; long has been my habit. To have the animal hunt."

The gang said, "That's the ticket." We hired a car. And soon thru bush and thicket, We hunted near and far.

I tramped thru glen and grotto, Until my spirit flagged; Returning to my auto, With my rabbit bagged.

Before we cranked the motor, One fellow cried, "Look here!" And midst the grass a quiver I spied a sitting hare.

"Now kick him out! I'll pop him!" "No, shoot him there!" they cry: "Or else you'll never drop him: This grass is far too high."

Another hint they throw out: "He'll shoot beneath the car. You'll shoot a fire, a blowout And bloody, there you are."

I aimed above his collar, And fired, and missed him fair; "Another shot," they holler, "He's there, he's there, he's there."

I fired again and missed him, And still he hadn't fled; And then I knew their system: Says I, "That rabbit's dead!"

FOR PUNISHMENT, SPANK 'EM

FOR a period of two weeks the city of New York was topsy-turvy over a series of bold house-breaking jobs. The newspapers echoed the feeling of the public in railing at the police department because it didn't round up the burglars.

Pictures—mental ones—were painted of an organized gang of desperate crooks, armed to the teeth, who would stop at nothing to secure the plunder that they considered their nightly portion. Timid people remained indoors at night, with windows and doors barred, fearing almost to extinguish the lights and retire.

Every unusual noise after nightfall was mistaken for a visitation of burglars. Every day the papers printed the details of new robberies. The audacity of the marauders grew with the passing of the days. The formation of citizens' squads for patrol duty to assist the police was considered.

Just when the public tension was almost at the breaking point, detectives stumbled onto a life-sized clue—not unusually large for its age. It all came about when the "desperadoes" staged an exemplification of the old saying "when thieves fall out." Quarreling over a division of the spoils, George and Harry Prendergast, 10 and 12 years old, fell into the hands of "limbs of the law" and quite unconsciously confessed that they were the robbers. They were more interested in the "scrap" between themselves than they were about the prospect of punishment for their misdeeds.

Then New York gasped, woke up and laughed. Citizens recommended to the court handling the cases of the Prendergast kids that they be spanked and sent home.

GROWTH OF MOTION PICTURES

FEW of us realize the great part moving pictures play in our lives today. We know that they furnish the best and cheapest entertainment to be found and bring almost to our very doors the greatest stage stars of the day, but we seldom stop to consider how much they would be missed should they suddenly be removed.

Comparatively new, the motion picture has grown to be one of the greatest industries in the world. Most of us can remember the first picture show we saw. The flickering, poorly lighted picture projected on a sheet of muslin of a few years ago has been developed to a point nearing perfection and improved upon until the voice of the actors seems to be the only thing lacking to make them real life productions.

The demand for themes and scenarios for these pictures has increased in proportion to the popularity the pictures have gained. Educators of a few years ago would have been shocked had they been told that institutions of learning would be teaching the art of writing these scenarios and the inside of the motion picture business in 1920. At any rate, this is what has happened.

A university in Philadelphia has announced a special course in this work and it is expected others will follow soon. This step should not come as a surprise since it is to be expected that schools, heretofore training students for all other important walks of life, should be called upon to prepare them for the great industry of motion picture making.

MISS LIMA: "Wood is a wonderful thing. It can be transformed into fuel, a beverage, print paper and sole leather."

From Probel's butcher shop." They howled, "Oh, boy, it's funny." I thought they'd never stop.

"If we'd a known," they thundered, "What fun was in that bare, We'd blown another hundred And bought a grizzly bear."

PHILOSOPHY

Man is a mortal. Fate is a riddle. Marriage a hurdle. And life a muddle.

Fame is the myrtle. And joy is a chorelle. Life is a riddle. And Man is a mortal.

All Thought is a straddle. The Truth is a riddle. Our Death is a muddle. And Hades a griddle.

Since Man is a mortal, Let's chuckle and chuckle. Since Fate is a riddle, Sing hey, diddle, diddle. Since Thought is a straddle, It's all fiddle fiddle.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This day is ruled by friendly stars.

It is particularly auspicious for writers, especially for those not yet well known.

Scientists will progress rapidly during the immediate future, and many new inventions will be developed.

Race difficulties, in which the Orient is involved, are likely to arise.

Persons whose birthday this is, may expect an uneventful year.

Children born today will be popular, fond of pleasure and very active.

HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.

THE GALLBLADDER

The gallbladder, the size and color of a small or trial size lemon, lies just under the edge of the ribs a bit to the west of the depression that marks the tip of the breastbone. It is filled with gall. It has but one nozle thru which it squirts the gall into the main gall channel, which conveys gall from the liver to the intestine. Gall is not a disease, you understand; it is the bile, the natural secretion of the liver. But the gallbladder is rather superfluous today, if it ever served any essential purpose in the upright animal. Like other structures which have become more or less superfluous in the course of human progress from the all-four to the fore and hind, notably the wisdom teeth, the vermiform appendix and the tonsils, the human gallbladder seems to be particularly vulnerable to disease. For which we, the medical profession, may be grateful.

Infection of the lining of the gallbladder by various bacteria from various parts of the body produces inflammation thereof, called, for the sake of euphony, cholecystitis, merely the doctor's resounding and ponderous way of saying gallbladder inflammation. Then sometimes a few million of the responsible germs in a idle moment get together in a clump, roll around and gather a coating of mucus, which in time becomes coated or plated over with a layer of crystalline material deposited by the cure, or choleliths, merely the doctor's resounding and ponderous way of saying gallstones. Then sometimes a few million of the responsible germs in a idle moment get together in a clump, roll around and gather a coating of mucus, which in time becomes coated or plated over with a layer of crystalline material deposited by the cure, or choleliths, merely the doctor's resounding and ponderous way of saying gallstones. Then sometimes a few million of the responsible germs in a idle moment get together in a clump, roll around and gather a coating of mucus, which in time becomes coated or plated over with a layer of crystalline material deposited by the cure, or choleliths, merely the doctor's resounding and ponderous way of saying gallstones.

A famous Baltimore physician who would be too greatly embarrassed by newspaper publicity recently cited an interesting example of the curious process I have just been describing. He told of the removal from his own person of four large gallstones thirty years after a typhoid fever attack he had suffered when eight years old, and on cutting thru the stones and making cultures from the centres the bacteriologist demonstrated the presence of living typhoid germs.

That's perseverance, even for typhoid bacilli!

You see, in typhoid fever, the germs are truly situated thru the bile tract. Months and years after the fever, in some cases, the living germs are still eliminated into the intestine thru the bile tract, thru the gallbladder—and such individuals, are the typhoid carriers who innocently cause epidemics of typhoid if they have anything to do with handling or preparing food. But what is more to the point here, a considerable share of gallstones are encountered in persons who have had typhoid fever (recognized or mistaken for some other illness) in years past.

An individual who has a sack of gallstones in his midst does not necessarily suffer any serious trouble therefrom. In something like one of each ten cases of gallstone disease no symptoms are complained of by the subject.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

JUST A GIRL

BY JANE PHELAN

A LONG-DELAYED COMMUNICATION

One day the postman brought me a letter from mother enclosing a note from our old lawyer, Mother had bound him not to tell our address, and so no one had been able to find us thru him. It may have been, probably was foolish, but neither mother nor I wished any of our old friends to know anything about us. Sixty years, many may say, yet I doubt if there are many who would not have felt and acted the same under the same conditions.

Mr. Harkness had written a note to mother about Kenneth Lawrence. It seemed that Kenneth had visited New York, that he had found out that Mr. Harkness was father's lawyer, had visited him, and asked for our address. Mr. Harkness had refused to give it, but he said: "The young man was so persistent I promised to let you know he had inquired for you. He gave his address in case you had forgotten it, and begged me to ask Miss Zena to write him a note telling him where he could write her."

My heart almost stopped beating. So he had not forgotten after all. I laughed and eyed then took myself to task for being hysterical. That he asked for me meant nothing. I was not the gay butterfly, Zena Stewart, he had known, but a very different girl. I was a serious working girl. I had not danced in years; I seldom went to any place of amusement. I had learned that a girl must conserve her strength if she is to get on in the business world, especially a girl inclined to frills.

He had been intrigued with the other Zena, the gay laughing, happy, indulged daughter of a millionaire who played away the hours and days, dancing, motoring, etc. Why should I think he would care for this one, the gray, serious girl who never played at all any more, and whose mind was filled with the price of securities instead of dancing and theatres.

Yet I could not altogether banish the happy feeling his asking for me had aroused. I had dreamed of him too long, had too often visualized him in my thoughts in my lonely hours. Two days after receiving mother's letter I wrote Kenneth. It was hardly more than a note. I simply told him I had heard from Mr. Harkness, and that he told me Mr. (Kenneth) had asked for my address. I gave him the flat number and I would occupy almost as soon as he received my letter. Then I waited. I had told him nothing of myself, my changed condition. Time enough for that if he wrote me.

Yet I went about my work in a happy excited manner that drew a question from Jennie Wilcox, and a puzzled look from Mr. Claxton. "You look as if you had had some wonderful news, or something," Jennie said. "You fairly radiate happiness."

I made some careless answer, and tried to hide my feeling of delight that I had not been forgotten. But once or twice I caught Mr. Claxton looking at me queerly, and he too mentioned my changed manner.

"Something has happened to please you," he remarked casually. "Yes, I heard from an old friend. I too had tried to speak carelessly, but knew that I had blushed."

"It must be a very dear friend to cause you to look so happy."

I made no answer. I hated to say more. But I saw he watched me closely, and I tried to assume my usual business manner, to forget Kenneth Lawrence.

My little flat was ready. It really was very pretty and comfortable. Only in mother's room had I been extravagant. There I had spent most of my money. The living room was dining room also. I had bought a drop leaf table in a second-hand shop, and three chairs. The rest of the room was furnished with wicker chairs, a small table, a reading lamp and a rug rug. My room, a small one, I spent scarcely anything upon. A small iron bed, a chiffonier, and one rocking chair all painted white was all the room would accommodate. Mary had made it gay with ruffled muslin curtains and covers of the same for chiffonier and bed. The tiny kitchenette, really little more than a closet, had a gas stove, a small ice box, and shelves for the necessary dishes. But I felt that mother and I would be very happy. Once as I looked around there flashed across my vision a picture of our old home just off Fifth-ave. The great rooms, decorated by famous artists, the wonderful furnishings, the soft-footed servants. Poor mother! the contrast would be painful in spite of all I had tried to do to make her a comfortable home. It wasn't so hard for me, I had not enjoyed the other home so much, many years, and I had become inured to such poverty that this little flat seemed a veritable palace to me if mother were with me.

The day I sent for mother I received a letter from Kenneth Lawrence.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

YOUR NAME

COLLINS

BY PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN
VARIATIONS — Collinson, Collect, Colet.

RACIAL ORIGIN — Norman-French. SOURCE — A Given name. Here is another group of family names derived from the given name of Nicholas, only this time more in accordance with Norman than Anglo-Saxon custom.

Even before the Normans invaded and conquered England the given name of "Cole" or "Collin" was popular and widespread among them. They had formed this name as a diminutive of Nicholas, the name of the famous saint, who was archbishop of Myra in the fourth century, and who already had become the patron saint of children.

Incidentally, this tendency among the people of Europe in the early Middle Ages to take a single given name and split it up into all sorts of diminutives and variations was not due entirely to the natural inclination to "form nick-names, but in large measure was due to that same death of sufficient names to go around which intensified as populations became larger, finally grew into the formation of family names.

The family of Collins, when it is simply the modern form of "Collin's son," is also the family name of Collinson.

The Normans quite frequently formed diminutives of given names by the endings "et" and "ot," and it is from names so formed that the family names of Collect and Colet come down to us.

WILSON'S OFFER BRINGS JOY TO LEAGUE MEETING

Acceptance as Mediator in Armenia Creates Great Impression at Geneva Assembly—"Europe Feels Less Abandoned," Says French Delegate

GENEVA.—(By Associated Press.)—A letter to President Wilson, accepting his offer to act as mediator in Armenia, was being drafted by the council of the league of nations here Wednesday. Mr. Wilson's note, which was received Wednesday morning, was read to members of the council at 10:30 o'clock, and was received with marks of liveliest satisfaction.

President Wilson's acceptance created a great impression when it was announced.

"Poor old Europe will feel less abandoned," was a remark made by a member of the French delegation while discussing the matter. The news gave the assembly great relief, as the Armenian question had become the bugbear of the assembly.

FORM OF MEDIATION
There is much speculation as to what form the mediation of Armenia will take. J. Balfour, a leader of the British delegation, remarked to the assembly the other day that in order to negotiate it would be necessary to offer Mustapha Kemal, chief of the Turkish Nationalists, something, either money or territory, and this remark is recalled in connection with Mr. Wilson's known opposition to the disposition made of some parts of the territory of Turkey by the Sevres treaty.

Prediction is made here that, in the end, the Greeks may pay the price for saving what remains of the Armenian people.

"President Wilson's action is a big step toward a solution of one of the most serious problems before the assembly," was the way Lord Robert Cecil characterized the American president's acceptance.

"That is wonderful news," he declared when the information was given him. "It brings relief to all of us who are trying to find a way to help the Armenians out of the difficulty. Mr. Wilson's acceptance is commendable and worthy of the best traditions of the United States, which always has been a friend to Armenia and taken the lead in alleviating her sufferings."

"The decision of President Wilson is not in any sense political, from my point of view, and cannot give encouragement to all those who wish to see the United States in the league. It is simply a natural development of an old, humanitarian policy."

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, who has been one of the first to become interested in Armenia, and is a member of the committee considering developments in that country, was rather inclined to pessimism yesterday. When he heard the news today, however, he beamed with joy.

"We have found the man," he cried, "and the rest will be easy."

EX-EMPRESS WHO IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Augusta Victoria, ex-empress of Germany

One of the most delightful dinner parties of the season was the affair at the South High school Tuesday evening. This affair was given for the pleasure of Miss Lude Stearn, Milwaukee, Wis., who is lecturing here on "Food Economics." Sixty guests were in attendance representing the Dramatic, Bay View, Chautauqua, Twentieth Century, T. and T., Bluffton Travel, Woman's, Child Welfare, Day Nursery, Music, Jewish Council, Arbutes, Lotus, Floral Guild, Philomathean, Domestic Science, Y. W. C. A., Art, Clifton, Etude, College Women's Societies, N. B. O. O. clubs, South High school, Welfare association, Central High school Welfare association, and representatives of the South and Central High school instructors.

The long table which was laid in the corridor of the cafeteria, was arranged with huge bowls of palms, oranges and lemons. The dinner was served under the supervision of Miss Pauline Hyman, chairman of the home economics department of the City Federation, assisted by the girls of the domestic science department of the South High. During the dinner the orchestra of the school played.

Miss Stearn gave an inspiring talk following the dinner. In her explanation, she gathered was one well representing the different organizations interested in Food Economics. Her topic was "The Child as the Public Hope." She stated that if the child is trained and nurtured so will America be and just as long as the enemies' children are starving, they are in Europe, so long will America suffer indirectly, because they will come to this country diseased and America will be compelled to take care of them.

She said "America is to me a hope, an ideal, an aspiration of conscience, a process and the best work of uplift in a community is thru the work of the child."

Great help is secured thru a Forum, she declared and asked why one could not be established in Lima. She stated that in St. Louis not one bond issue has been lost because it had been talked over and explained at the forum.

Miss Stearn said "The ability to read has become an obstacle to the acquisition of the truth because people read so much that is not true."

At the close of Miss Stearn's address, heads of the various organizations and heads of the departments of the Federation gave short talks.

There was a quorum of the members of the City Federation at the dinner and it was decided to support the Community Chest fund to be launched on Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winters, 236 W. Vine-st., have been entertaining as their guest Mrs. Winters' father, D. W. Moffitt, Dorset.

Mrs. J. A. Cornelius, W. Wayne-st., was hostess to the members of the Alteretia Euchre club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Chrysanthemums were arranged about the rooms, making the home unusually attractive. At the close of the afternoon of play Mrs. Edgar Webb, Mrs. Maud Dennis and Mrs. J. Drosch received the prizes. Mrs. J. Drosch and Mrs. Floyd Harris were the only guests. At 5 o'clock a delicious tea was served.

The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Edgar Webb, Terrace Court.

Members in attendance were Mrs. J. H. Allaire, Mrs. C. E. Durbin, Mrs. Maud Dennis, Mrs. C. E. Durbin, Mrs. Danks, Gilbert, Mrs. Frank Foutz, Mrs. Fred Stevens, Mrs. Edgar Webb, Mrs. H. W. Shortleiff, and Mrs. Cornelius.

Miss Veronica McCray, N. Metcalf-st., is the guest of Miss Margery Galvin in Jamestown, for several days.

Miss Florence G. Shields, New York city, is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. J. G. Neubauer, 1522 Lakewood-ave.

Ernest L. Sears, Bakersville, Cal., arrived Wednesday morning to be the guest of his mother, Mrs. John Cowsher, 519 N. McDonell-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Boothby, 621 N. Metcalf-st., are the proud parents of a son, born on Thanksgiving Day. They have given the little one the name of William.

Miss Bernice Wallburg E. Eureka-st., who recently underwent an operation for tonsils and adenoids, is improving.

Mrs. Cummings, remained at her home Monday evening with a headache and a cold. She is leaving soon for her home in Superior, Okla. The evening was great with music and games and late delicious three course luncheon was served.

Guests included Mrs. Iva Settlemore, Mrs. Mary Clutter, Mrs. Edward Manhard, Mrs. Joe Shaw and daughter, June, Miss Thelma Long, Miss Anna Kost, Misses Catherine and Edith Hines, Miss Winona Robinson, Mrs. Helen Montague and the honored guest.

Mrs. Robert Blake, S. Metcalf-st., will be hostess to the members of the Matinee Bridge club with a luncheon bridge at her home on Thursday.

Roger Stenacker, E. Circular-st., has returned to his home after visiting in Wapakoneta with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Tester.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Estes announce the arrival of a daughter, born Sunday, November 28th. They have named the little one, Betty Jane. Mrs. Estes was formerly Miss Hazel Carious.

MONKEY FUR TRIMS NEW FRENCH FROCK

By ELOISE.

Here is one of the newest importations from Paris. It is a black silk duvetyne made on simple lines and trimmed with bands of monkey fur. The long, slightly flaring tunic shows three bands of the fur and the high collar and cuffs are also finished with fur. Another unusual trimming feature of this frock is the cut-out design thru which shows white kid in smart contrast to the black of the frock. The design shows on the blouse, sleeves and belt. A tuft of monkey fur and a hat trimmed with monkey fur ornaments are smart accessories for the frock.

SUSIE SMART SAYS

Dear Miss Smart: (1) Is Annie Fellows Johnston alive? She is the author of "The Little Colonel" series, "Big Brother," "The Three Weavers," "Joe," "A Boy of Galilee," etc. (2) If she is alive will you give me her address?

(1) Yes. (2) Pewee Valley, Kentucky.

Dear Miss Smart: I am a girl 29 years old, and am in love with a young man I have been going with him for four months. He has been out of town on business for two weeks and I have not heard from him for nearly two weeks, also I have written to him. Should I write him and ask him what is the matter?

No. Two weeks is a very short interval and perhaps his business is so absorbing that he does not have time for social letters. Do not do or say anything which shows undue interest in him until he has told you that he cares for you. Go out with other friends. Do not depend on this one alone.

Dear Miss Smart: Please give me the address of the following: (1) Viola Davis, (2) Mary McKelvey, (3) The Palmadze girls, (4) Anne Griffith, (5) Jack Kerrigan, (6) George Walster, (7) William and Susan Farnum, (8) Bebe Daniels.

(1) Metro, Hollywood, Cal.; (2) Lasky, Hollywood, Cal.; (3) 318 E. 48th-st., N. Y.; (4) E. 15th and Locust-sts., Brooklyn; (5) Paralta L. A. (6) Fox, 130 W. 46th-st. N. Y.; (7) Fox, Los Angeles and Fox, N. Y.; (8) 907 Brockman Bldg., Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Miss Smart: (1) When a young girl of 13 is introduced to a young man, yet is correct for her to say that she is and she met him or is it his place to say it? (2) What will make the hair grow thicker and longer? Is it better to use a hair lotion or not? (3) What will reduce the pores, and make the skin smooth and clear?

"BROWN EYES" (1) It is generally customary for the young girl to tell the young man who is pleased to have met him and to invite him to come and see her.

sometime. (2) Wash the hair at regular intervals—every two, three, four weeks, as required. Be sure to use a good soap, such as castile or tar, and rinse the hair in five or six waters. Brush the hair thoroughly every night and morning and you will be surprised at how much it improves in a short time. (3) A lotion to improve enlarged pores and refine the skin is made from one dram of boracic acid and four ounces of distilled water. Apply with a piece of old linen or absorbent cotton. Use a little borax in the water in which you bathe the face, then apply the lotion. Enlarged pores are often caused by the injudicious use of facial paint and powder, without first applying a cream.

Dear Miss Smart: Will you please tell me what will take milderow out of pillow cases? "F. P. M."

Milderow is one of the most difficult things to remove from an article. However, sometimes if it is taken in time sour milk will remove it partly.

Dear Miss Smart: Will you please suggest some Christmas gifts suitable for mother, father and young man friends?

"BROWNIE" For mother: Mesh bag, slipper buckles, flower bowl, correspondence cards, or paper, sewing basket. For father: Fountain pen, cloth and hat brush, stationery. For "him": Scarf pin, books, address book, handkerchief case, tie, letter opener, etc.

Dear Miss Smart: I would like very much to make some Dutch caps for Christmas presents but I don't know how the tabs over the ears are made to stand up. Will you please inform me.

MRS. G. C. W. If you use a wash material it may be starched and made to stand up very nicely. If, however, you use velvet, silk or the like, Crinoline is used for stiffening.

"The Whisper Market"

The Web of Scandal. It's a beautiful woman's most treacherous enemy.

Doesn't the title interest you? For who is it indeed that fails at some time or other to become a victim to a greater or less degree of the "Whisper Market"? It's a new theme on the screen, this picture which is coming to the Lyric Thursday for three days. You are promised right now that you will have never seen anything just like it. All the pulsing life and romance that is conjured up by the mention of that southern capital, Rio de Janeiro, has been injected into this picture. Beautiful Corinne Griffith interprets the leading role, and those who love pretty gowns, the very ne plus ultra of style, will be more than well paid in this production for it literally scintillates with creations it is said of fabulous price. Dozens and dozens of them to feast your eyes upon. As an added attraction there comes to the Lyric along with this picture Antonio Norcera, famous variety baritone, fresh from the Radio theater New York with a program of delightful vocal selections which you can not help but enjoy to the limit. Surely you must not overlook the Lyric tomorrow and Friday and Saturday for there will be entrancing entertainment there for you.

GARFORD TRUCK COMPANY HONORS BALL PLAYERS

E. A. Williams, president of the Garford Motor Truck Co., entertained members of the Garford championship baseball team Tuesday night with a dinner party at the Lima Club. Members of the advisory boards also attended.

It was in honor of the truck makers who copped the Industrial League title last summer.

The banquet room was elaborately decorated for the occasion and the large silver loving cup awarded by H. H. Sterrett occupied a conspicuous place in the center of the head table.

D. B. McPherson, general superintendent of the Garford Co., acted as toastmaster for the occasion and presented a program during and after the dinner which was unusually interesting.

Confessing that he was a "golf nut", Mr. McPherson continued by telling some jokes of the "golf pasture" and "golf" and his short speech in introducing the King of Good Fellows, Mr. L. A. Williams.

In his speech Mr. Williams told how baseball is connected to everyday business.

Right now, he said, we have two men out and one to strike out. Striker and over-protected are out, and our pitcher will have to strike out high before we get back to normalcy, he continued.

Mr. Williams congratulated members of the team and praised their efforts at winning the cup.

The cup was won in 1919 and 1920 by the team and it may win it next year. It is their goal for 1921.

Besides the talk of Mr. McPherson and Mr. Williams, J. H. Zacharias, vice president, and J. A. Francis, chief engineer, spoke.

ENTIRE TEAM ATTENDS
Members of the team who attended were: Charlie Reynolds, captain, left field; Walter C. Toles, center field; George Miller, right field; Dave Weathers, pitcher; Eugene Kooz, catcher; Chris Stamp, second base; Buck Hardin, third base; Charles Schneider, short stop; Lefty Patrick, first base; and Charlie Bushong, utility.

The main advisory board members in attendance were: D. B. McPherson, E. A. Williams, J. H. Zacharias, J. A. Francis, M. C. Neaton and M. A. McCullough.

OHIO ELEVEN TO PLAY IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK—Eddie Casey, Harvard star and all-American halfback last year, will play in the backfield for the Buffalo All-Americans, when they meet the Canton Bulldogs at the Polo grounds Saturday, according to James McNeil.

The winner of Saturday's game will be matched later with the undefeated Akron eleven. Whether the remainder of the series for the American professional championship will be staged in New York, depends on how the fans here take to the game, according to New York Giant management.

BASKET MEN REPORT AT NORTHERN

ADA—With 25 men out for varsity basketball at Northern the prospects for the coming season look very promising. Due to such a competition every man is working hard for a regular berth on the team.

Many of last year's freshmen are out and bid fair to a job over some of last year's varsity men. Coach Brown is not at all discouraged over the outlook but refused to make any statements as to a probable lineup.

A long and strenuous schedule is being arranged with the first conference game with Baldwin-Wallace at Ada Dec. 13. Twelve conference games have been scheduled and at least that many non-conference games are being arranged, so that an intense interest is being shown around the campus at Northern. The nucleus of the schedule is as follows:

Dec. 15—Baldwin-Wallace at Ada
Jan. 13—Otterbein at Ada
Jan. 19—Heidelberg at Ada
Dec. 22—Kenyon at Ada
Jan. 25—N. Y. Nationals at Ada
Jan. 28—Wittenberg at Spring field
Jan. 29—Capital Lin. at Columbus
Feb. 11—Hiram at Ada
Feb. 19—Wittenberg at Ada
Feb. 19—Toledo Univ. at Toledo.
Feb. 23—Kenyon at Gambier
Feb. 26—Otterbein at Westerville

DEMPSEY MAY BOX GEORGES IN TOLEDO

TOLEDO—Negotiations were opened between Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight pugilist, and Ad Thatcher, Toledo promoter, today with a view to staging the proposed Dempsey-Carpenter match in Toledo.

Thatcher received a telegram from Kearns in New York City asking the promoter to "look over the ground here and report to him by telephone."

The two men are expected to confer later in the day.

According to Kearns, it doesn't look probable that the bout can be staged in New York and there doesn't seem to be a logical location elsewhere at present.

Thatcher was Tex Rickard's assistant in promoting the Willard-Dempsey bout here a year ago last July 4, when Dempsey won his title.

Thatcher said today that he would go before the commission for a permit for a division bout if he can make "a satisfactory deal with Kearns."

WOOSTER WILL LOSE SIX PLAYERS

WOOSTER—Six gridirons on the Wooster football eleven played under Wooster colors for the last time Thanksgiving day when Mt. Union at Alliance was defeated 7 to 1, ending Wooster's tie with Wittenberg for Ohio Conference championship honors.

The men the team will lose because of graduation are Captain Stiffer and Hartman, ends; Billingsley, tackle; Snyder, quarterback; Fulton, halfback; and Dunbar, fullback.

Indications are that Coach Rees will be able to build up a 1921 squad which probably will be able to equal the record of this year's eleven—their goal line never having been crossed for a touchdown.

Salgart, freshman quarter showed fine form this year and should be able to step into Snyder's shoes, but the 1921 squad. There are indications that Atkinson and Quimby, backfield men, who formerly played with Wooster, will be back next year.

Wells, of this year's line, man squads bids fair for a backfield position next year.

Hess and Davies are said to be the best prospects for replacing Hartman and Stiffer at ends. Among Wooster's substitute linemen who showed ability this year are Clay and Hopkins, each weighing more than 180 pounds and Fritz, center.

MAY REVISE RULES OF GOLF

CHICAGO—Invasion of the east by the western Golf Association as a part of a plan to bring all of the golf clubs in the country under the same set of rules, is proposed in amendments to the W. G. A. constitution and by-laws submitted by mail to the directors today.

The changes, to be voted on at the annual meeting on January 15, involve adoption of a new name, the American Golf Association, which would act as authoritative administrative body for "making and enforcing the rules for the playing of golf in the United States."

There have been rumors of a golf war between the W. G. A. and the United States Golf Association, the controlling body in the east, for several years, but the outbreak of the war in Europe prevented an open break.

One of the chief purposes of the new golf organization, if approved, would be to revise those rules, which it is said were originally intended for Scotch and British courses and are not practical for American courses.

Decentralization of control would be effected by the proposed constitution its advocates claim, as the nine directors and officers would be chosen from not less than seven different states.

Similar action in the case of the board to allot amateur and open championships would draw these members from different sections in proper relative proportion to the number of golf players contiguous thereto.

TEX RICKARD PLANS TO HOLD BIG BOUT IN ENGLISH ARENA

NEW YORK.—(By United Press.)—Popular indoor sports have a new addition hereabouts.

It's a game of trying to figure what the new governor is going to do with boxing.

Apparently, Governor-elect Miller likes to keep the fans guessing. He neither affirms or denies the reports that he is going to scrap the Walker bill. The promoters are squirming uneasily.

Tex Rickard has Madison Square Garden on his hands and he has the Dempsey-Carpenter fight in the near future.

The Garden would be about as useful to him as the Leviathan is to the shipping board, if the boxing bill is revoked. But he could go to Europe with the Dempsey-Carpenter fracas.

Seriously he is now considering that very thing. Consent of Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, which forced Charles B. Cochrane to give up his plans for the fight in England, has now been obtained.

"It was the referee question that made us object to England at the start," Kearns said Wednesday. "Since the officials are named in the agreement, we will fight in England if the people of America do not care to see it."

Rickard said that plans being considered now are purely emergency affairs. He knows that organized opposition to the bout is being worked up in New York and he doesn't want to be caught like he was in California several years ago when the governor ran him out of the state with a big bout.

"THE KID" SOON TO BE RELEASED

Chaplin Reaches Agreement With First National

RECEIVE $800,000 FOR IT

Financial Difficulties Removed—Movie Directory

(By ESTHER WAGNER)

CHARLIE CHAPLIN is reported finally to have reached an agreement with First National. This is for release of his five-reel comic, "The Kid."

It has been more than a year since this best movie comedian's last picture was released.

The trouble is understood to have been a disagreement with First National.

Chaplin wanted to make five-reel comedies. This was after the tremendous popular artistic and financial success of "A Lucky Dog."

MAKE MONEY

He realized that his comedies could sell for a much higher price than exhibitors could afford to pay for two-reel comedies, whatever their merit. But the distributing company insisted that he keep his contract to provide them with a certain number of comedies at the price which had been fixed at a two-reel rate.

Chaplin balked. That is why there were no new Chaplin pictures issued in 1920.

Chaplin is said to have turned his new picture over to the distributors for $800,000.

HALF NOW

He is to get half now and the other half during delivery of several more comedies he is to make for the company. This is the latest report from New York.

The old contract which many persons wouldn't credit at the time was that he should make eight comedies for $1,200,000.

The first of the eight is said to have earned the company $750,000. It seems likely that it won't be long before we see a new comedy by Chaplin.

AT THE MAJESTIC— Vivian Martin, Paramount star, is seen in the comedy-drama "Jane Goes A Wooing" appearing today at the Majestic theatre.

AT THE SIGMA— Allan Dwan's "The Forbidden Thing" is being shown.

Thing" opens a four-day engagement today at the Sigma theatre. An all star cast is featured in the production.

AT THE ORPHEUM— Last two times tonight at 7:30 and 9 o'clock, the gorgeous whirl of song, girls and color, "The Rainbow Cocktail" with special costumes and scenery; "Walters Wanted" one of the funniest skits in years; and four other acts. Coming Thursday, "Hearts and Flowers" headline attraction.

AT THE LYRIC— William Farnum appears today at the Lyric theatre in "If I Were King." Beginning Thursday, "The Whisper Market" with Corrine Griffith, will be the feature attraction at this theatre. Symphony Orchestra afternoon and evening.

MOVIES Courts are asked to pass on the American movie rights to "Aphrodite."

Morris Gest who promoted the stage production also holds the movie rights to it. Meanwhile a foreign made film based on the original story is on its way from France. It was made in Italy and stars George Le Blanc who was married to Maurice Maeterlinck.

Chicago dispatch says Theda Bara plans to retire on January 1, ending her engagement on the stage in "The Blue Flame."

Griffith is booming his newest movie for an opening in Chicago. He is offering the best seats at $5 and $10. That is on New Year. This movie is his film production of "Way Down East."

Mabel Normand was one of the chief buyers at an auction last week of the personal effects of the late Olive Thomas. The total from this sale was about $30,000.

Zena Keefe plays a half-breed Indian girl in her new picture "Out of the Snow."

FROM JAPAN Tsuru Aoki, the very pretty and charming little wife of Sessue Hayakawa, has just returned from a trip to her native Japan, where she visited her parents after an absence of twenty years. She brought back with her about twenty-five thousand dollars' worth of kimonos.

If you think the ladies of Nippon can beat the H.C.L. you should hear Mrs. Hayakawa tell what feminine apparel costs over there. A kimono of modest design costs $40, and the big expense of a society lady's costume is the obi, or sash. These cost about three hundred yen ($150 in American money) and are elaborately embroidered often with gold thread.

The little Japanese film star reported that her pictures, as well as those of her husband were very popular in Japan, and that shoppers were delighted at the thought of their kimonos appearing in films. Just the same, she added, their delight did not prevent them from asking the regular price in fact.

she suspects that they added a yen or two. Profiteering, it this appears, is not confined to America.

GOING UP FOR RAY "Going Up," originally "The Aviator," is to be done in the films by Charles Ray. James Montgomery wrote the comedy for Wallace Edinger. Later, in musical comedy form, Cohan and Harris produced it as "Going Up" with Edith Day. Ray is said to have paid $35,000 for the screen rights to the comedy.

STRONG MEN SOMETIMES TIRE EASILY

But Refuse to Believe That They Are Tired Out—Run-Down

EVEN ATHLETES NEED TONIC

This Husky Chap Admits It, and Twice a Year Takes Pepto-Mangan, Red Blood Builder

He is tall (almost six feet), weighs 155, plays golf, works his own garden, and is stronger than most men. He is the picture of health, looks as vigorous as a football player.

But he is a bit anemic, gets tired too easily, is inclined to constipation, is more nervous than a normal man should be, and is subject to disgusting pimples.

He told all this himself, and added, "Whenever I have the sense or the memory to take two or three bottles of Gude's Pepto-Mangan in the late fall and early spring, I am as right as a trivet. The trouble is, I forget. If I hired a doctor only to remind me to take Pepto-Mangan twice a year, it would be worth hundreds of dollars to me."

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolutely dependable red-blood builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak, and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

NEW YORK — Heaviness of Mexican oils and strength of European issues of the same class were the striking features at the uncertain opening of Wednesday's stock market. There was further selling of coppers, also minor rails, with New Haven at a new low price for the current movement. Shippings eased fractionally with steels, equipments, textiles, chemicals and food shares, but Chicago Pneumatic Tool, except by under severe pressure, rose 1 1/2 points.

Change on London showed no alteration from Tuesday's final quotations. The market turned heavy within the first hour when selling of recent vulnerable issues, in the steel, equipment, metal and various special groups was resumed. Vanadium and Republic steels, Baldwin Locomotive, Utah and Chile Coppers and American Western lost 1 to 2 points. Southern Pacific was the only representative rail to react but secondary issues, especially St. Paul common and preferred, Missouri Pacific, Kansas City Southern, St. Louis and southwestern, Erie 1st preferred and New Orleans, Texas and Mexico fell 1 to 2 points. Oils and chemicals also reacted. There were heavy offerings of Liberty bonds at recessions of fractions to almost 1 point. Call money opened at 7 per cent as against the recent initial rate of 6 per cent.

WAREHOUSES OVERFLOW

WITH SEIZED LIQUOR

NEW YORK — So many liquor seizures have been made in New York City, where observance of the prohibition laws is made by government agents to be almost nil, the storage of confiscated liquor presents a serious problem, Knox B. Phagan, temporary enforcement agent, announced Wednesday. One huge warehouse and many government offices are filled with contraband stock. The government cache represents everything from registered and moonshine whiskey to the most deadly of home brews, Mr. Phagan added, and is packed in every conceivable sort of carrier from hot water bottles to water carafes. Mr. Phagan announced a plan to apply for a federal court order directing sale by auction to legal permit holders. "We've got to make room for new seizures," he said.

MARKET HINTS FOR MRS. LIMA

Women who go "a-marketing" Thursday won't have much difficulty in finding a large supply of vegetables in the grocery stores. In some of the different lines of goods, such as fruits, there is a fairly large variety, but not quantity. Just at present fine quality isn't to be found in some of the articles, either. Fairly good cabbage may be had for 5 cents a pound. There is a small supply of parsnips, 2 lbs. for 15c, carrots 5 cents a lb., manioc 10c, corn place, turnips 5 cents; spinach 25 cents, and radishes 5 cents a bunch. Eggs are selling at 80 cents a dozen.

A large supply of canned goods have just been received by Lima grocers. All kinds of canned articles are being sought at present. Very fine canned mushrooms, imported from France, are being sold at $1.10 a can. Crab, imported from Japan, comes in 60 and 90 cent cans. Lobster at 70 cents and shrimp at 33 and 35 cents.

CHICAGO — Storms in Argentina had a tendency Wednesday to strengthen the wheat market here. Severe damage to Argentine crops was reported. Considerable attention was also given to domestic and foreign stocks of wheat in country elevators of the surplus producing states are low except in a few localities.

Opening quotations, which varied from 1-4 decline to 1c advance with December $1.56 to 1.57 and March $1.50 to 1.51-1.52 were followed by slight down-turns and then by a material advance all around.

Corn paralleled the action of wheat. After opening at 1-2c decline to 1-4 advance with May 12 1-4 to 12 1-2c, the market scored a general gain.

Oats were firm with other cereals, starting unchanged to a shade higher and continuing to harden. Provisions reflected the steadiness of the hog market.

The market closed strong, 5 to 6 1-4c net higher, with December $1.52 to 1.52 1-2 and March $1.55-1.56 to 1.56.

INDUSTRIAL NEWS

Pierre S. du Pont was elected president of the Central Motor Corporation to succeed W. C. Durant at a meeting of the directors in New York. This change was forecast last week, when it was announced, a bank group organized by J. P. Morgan & Co. and the Du Ponts had taken over a large share of Mr. Durant's stock holdings in General Motors. Mr. du Pont heads the du Pont Securities Corporation, which was formed to hold the stock.

It was stated after the meeting, that the directors purposed to make no changes in other offices or in the conduct of the corporation's affairs. Mr. Durant stated he intended to take a vacation and devote his attention for the next few months to personal affairs.

PITTSBURGH—The price of steel wire products were cut today by the Pittsburgh Steel Co. approximately 50 cents per 100 pounds, making the new quotations on wire nails $3.75 a keg and on plain wire $3.25 a hundred pounds, f. o. b. Pittsburgh. Barbed wire and fence staples were priced proportionately. Shipments of unfilled orders will be invoiced at the new quotations.

SHORT SHAVINGS

The company had been marching for two solid miles without a rest and recruit Sullivan, holding the exalted rank of No. 3 in the rear rank, first squad, had about come to the limit of his endurance. Finally, just as he was about to give up the ghost and drop, the captain gave the command, "Company, halt."

"By the lord, captain," groaned Sullivan, as he eased off his pack, "you took the very words out of my mouth."

Senator Knox was once compelled by financial affairs to visit a boom town in the west.

In the evening, as he sat in the office of the corrugated iron hotel trying to digest a dinner of salt pots and beans, the landlord thrust a three-cent cigar into his hand and said:

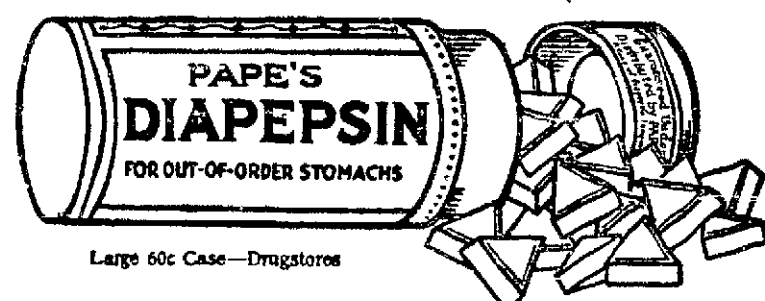

"I sartlily am proud of Boomville! Would you believe it, that two years ago there wasn't no town here at all?"

"Humph," said Senator Knox. "And what makes you think there's one here now?"

ACID STOMACH

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole.

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds on the chest. Nothing like Musterole for groupy children. Keep it handy for instant use.

Because of its unique, patented design, the AutoStrop Razor can be stropped without removing the blade. Just slip the strop through the razor head, and give the razor a dozen quick passes over the strop. In 10 seconds you have a "new," sharp shaving-edge! 500 cool, comfortable shaves are guaranteed from each dozen blades.

Get an AutoStrop Razor today and enjoy the comfort and convenience of a safety razor and stropping device combined in one. Ask your dealer about the AutoStrop Razor trial plan.

Auto-Strop Razor —sharpens itself

On razors, strops, blades, etc., hereafter manufactured by us we shall apply the trade mark "Valet" in addition to the trade mark "AutoStrop" as an additional indication that they are the genuine products of the AutoStrop Safety Razor Co., New York

GIVE DIAMONDS FOR XMAS

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspirinol, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirinol the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinol and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful with four teaspoonsful of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When you cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspirinol is by far the safest and most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—Adv.

the drug stores of the United States so that the public could easily obtain this very remarkable tonic, corrective, and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Few folks or families now living have not at sometime or other used this Golden Medical Discovery for the stomach, liver and heart. Evidence of the wonderful sale of this medicine is recorded in the books of Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y., showing that over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold in this country. No one can fight the battles of life and hold his own if his blood is not pure. No one suffers from colds, "flu" and catarrh who has plenty of red corpuscles and a good digestion. As cell-nutrition depends upon the blood, impurities in the blood, together with a lowered bodily resistance, cause catarrh. Introduce pure red blood into the system, and health is assured.

Dr. Pierce advises you, if you wish to avoid the many germ diseases, to keep your blood in good order. You can obtain Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form at all drug stores, or send 10c for a trial package to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y.
